

The Quest Group is a unique organization with industry leading instrumentation and product solutions designed for today's rapidly expanding data communication, fluid management and service challenges.

Their patented products and proprietary systems offer unique solutions for fluid management, process monitoring, instrumentation data and alarm reporting.

LEVEL-PRO System:

The LEVEL-PRO system was designed with over 25 years of inventive level gauge manufacturing experience. This latest "Best in Industry" liquid level gauge combines vast instrumentation design experience with highly accurate technology to produce an advance yet simple gauging system. Installation, reliability and accuracy goes unmatched in the evolution of Quest Group's LP Wireless Gauge Systems.

RECTIFIER BUDDY
Remote Cathodic Rectifier Monitoring System

The Quest RECTIFIER BUDDY was driven by client demand to compliment Cathodic Protection and add value to the pipeline integrity system. Remote data monitoring and message reporting through simplex satellite communication saves time and money knowing Cathodic Protection equipment is effectively functioning, monitored and managed.
